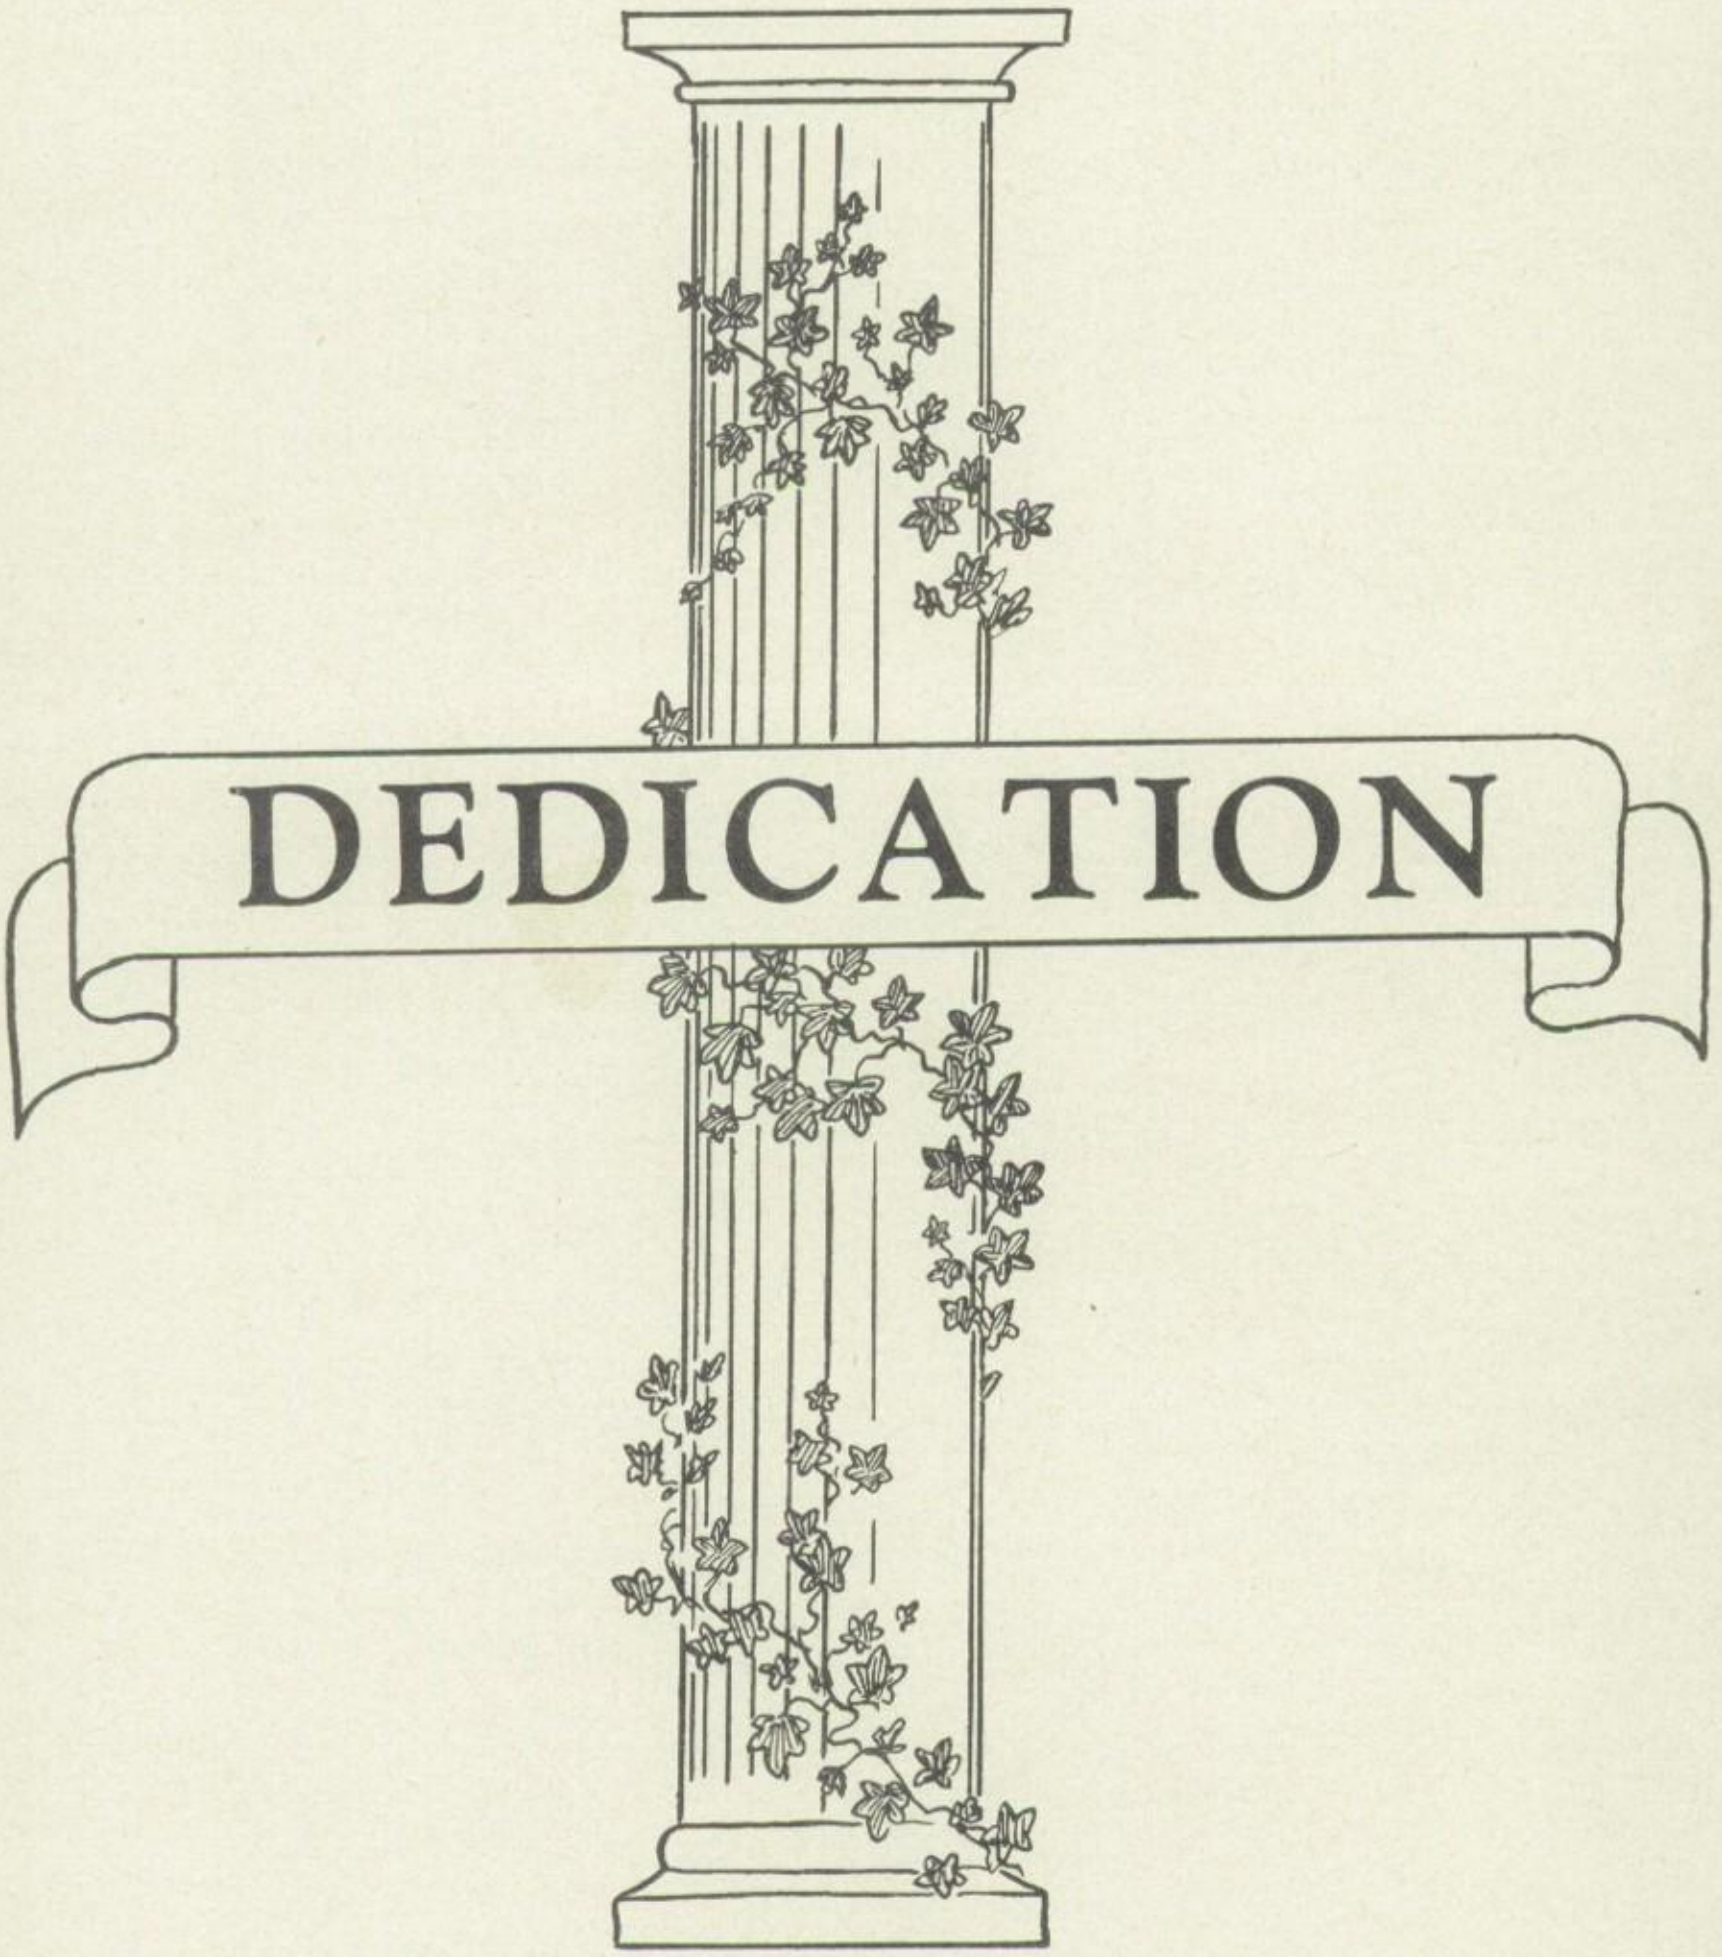
BOHISCAN



DEDICATION

ROBERT HARTMAN

We, the Senior Class of 1954, take the honor of dedicating this, the fifteenth volume of the Bohiscan to Mr. Hartman.

We are grateful for his sincere guidance as a teacher and we appreciate his enthusiasm as a coach which led to championships in Basketball and Baseball.

THE 1953 JUNIOR PROM

Class History

On September 5, 1950, 35 new students entered Bowler High School. We were initiated October 6, by the Sophomores. The biggest event of our first year was the Sophomore return party which we sponsored. Many Freshmen participated in extra-curricular activities.

Our representatives on the Court of Honor were Tom Trinko and Nathalie Schmidt. Mr. Hartman was our advisor. The following were our officers for our Freshman year:

President . . . . . James Boldig
Vice President. . . . . Ronald Kolpack
Secretary-Treasurer . . . . . Jerry Jacobs
Reporter. . . . . Neil Malueg

At the end of the year our enrollment totaled 34.

September 4, 1951, we returned for our second year with 34 members. During the year we gained one new member. We initiated the Freshmen on October 19. Marjorie Maahs and Jerry Jacobs represented the Sophomore class on the Court of Honor. Our class advisor was Mr. Rynearson. Our officers during the Sophomore year were:

President. . . . . William Schultz
Vice President . . . . . Marjorie Maahs
Secretary . . . . . Jacky Long
Treasurer . . . . . Patricia Maas
Reporter . . . . . Nathalie Schmidt

September 2, 1952, we returned to Bowler High as Juniors. We had 32 members. During the year we lost two of our classmates. Mr. Fischer was our advisor. This was a busy year for us. The Junior Prom was held April 24, 1953. Our theme was "Garden In The Rain." Music for the prom was furnished by the Templeaires. Lloyd Malueg was our King and Valarie Hermann our Queen. Tom Trinko and Judith Pehlke represented the Junior Class on the Court of Honor. The Juniors were "champs" in selling magazine subscriptions. We received our class rings in January of 1953. Our officers for the year were:

President . . . . . Jerry Jacobs
Vice President . . . . . James Boldig
Secretary. . . . . Sandra Miller
Treasurer . . . . . Bill Kassube
Reporter . . . . . Valarie Hermann

September 8, 1953, we were the High and Mighty Seniors. Our enrollment was 30. During the year we lost one member. Our advisor was Mr. Hoffman. This was our biggest and most exciting year. Events were as follows: Our class pictures were taken September 29 at Toburen Studios in Antigo. The Senior Boys' Banquet was held April 26 and the Senior Girls' Banquet May 18 at the Gold Coast in Antigo. Our class play was given May 14. The title was "Keep Your Fingers Crossed." On May 15 we took our class trip to Wisconsin Dells. Senior representatives on the Court of Honor were Lloyd Malueg and Jacky Long. Senior officers were:

President. . . . . Lester Marten
Vice President. . . . . Lloyd Malueg
Secretary . . . . . Judith Pehlke
Treasurer . . . . . Valarie Hermann
Reporter . . . . . Patricia Maas

We, the Seniors of 1954, wish to thank our present and former teachers and principal, and each one with whom we came in contact with during our four years at Bowler High School. We sincerely appreciate their daily guidance and advice.

Class Prophecy

During the year 1960, I, quite by chance, met the census taker of the Bowler and Shepley areas. He had collected a large amount of material and under one of the files labeled "Censored", I found the following intriguing information about the Seniors of 1954.

GARY TIMM isn't getting rich, but he is having fun driving a Blatz beer truck. "It's a refreshing job," he comments.

VALERIE HERMANN is dividing her time between her new home and her teaching job. She still has plans for a banking job, however.

BILL SCHULTZ is playing defensive tackle for the Green Bay Packers. While in the off season he manages an Oleomargarine factory.

ROGER STRASSBURG heads a huge "dye" factory. He got a good start while attending High School.

TOM TRINKO is the slim new featherweight wrestling champion. He makes up for the lack of brain with a cold, calculating brain.

GERALD GEISSEL is on the farm enjoying himself immensely. He's very happily married.

GENE WOOD alias "Hot Rod Gene," just won the Indianapolis 500. He always was a fast man.

NATHALIE SCHMIDT is a famous Powers model. She always did have a lot of power.

LESTER MARTEN is a Major in the U.S. Marines. He is known throughout the entertainment world as "The Singing Major." He also directs the Marine Band.

SHERMAN WILLIAMS is now Professor Williams. His new discovery is a "Tela Hipto Graph." The "Tela Hipto Graph" is a 3-D television set which permits the listener to communicate with the performer.

DONALD LARSON just came back from Mars where he was interviewing the Marsians. He has decided to return to Mars because of an interesting specimen.

JACKY LONG and LLOYD MALUEG are now Mr. and Mrs. They operate the new Bowler Fish Hatchery.

ALLEN GROSSKOPF is the owner of the Riding Academy at Shawano Lake. He also runs a successful roller rink.

WALTER SCHWARTZKOPF has attained the rank of P.F.C. in the National Guard. He plans to make this his career.

MARILYN DAVIDS is now General Manager of a combination Grocery Store and Gas Station in a nearby town north of Bowler.

JERRY JACOBS is the coach of the University basketball team. He has a perfect record, no wins!

JIM BOLDIG is happily married and enjoys his career playing with the Chicago Cubs. He is batting a wonderful 169.

JUDY PEHLKE has remained single and is Principal of a new $2000 school in Shepley.

LORAYNE HARTLEBEN is employed by Sentinel T. V. of Evanston. She is assistant to the President and someday hopes to own the business.

HELEN BEILKE is now a Home Economics demonstrator on Station WBAY. She has taken the place of Helen Day.

BILL KASSUBE is operating the Bowler Hotel. He inherited the business from his father-in-law.

FRED KASTEN is a dealer for Mercury Motors, of Town Hutchins. His former classmates are his best customers.

JOYCE LARSON has a half interest in Standard Oil Company. I wonder how she is making out?

CHARLIE MAAHS is studying to become a male beautician. He recently purchased the Narlow Beauty Salon.

MARJORIE MAAHS is the star of the great Broadway hit, "Keep Your Fingers Crossed." The play will soon be coming to Bowler.

PATTI MAAS is the owner of a department store in Roosevelt. She has bargains on baseball suits for the Almon team.

SANDRA MILLER is now Commercial instructor at Bowler High. She plays trombone with "Cousin Fuzzy" in her spare hours.

GUY SHADDUCK has had a perfect season as pitcher for the 1960 championship Almon baseball team.

Class Will

We, the Class of nineteen hundred fifty-four, do hereby make and declare this to be our last will and testament.

GENE WOOD wills his reckless way of living to anyone who wants to "Cross Over the Bridge."

GUY SHADDUCK wills his "curve" technique to Carol Day.

MARILYN DAVIDS wills her winning smile to anyone who can win it.

GARY TIMM wills his ability to drink beer in large quantities to G. Buchholtz.

MARJORIE MAAHS wills her pleasant disposition to Alice Hafferman.

BILL KASSUBE wills his ability to break every rule in the book to Gene Matz.

HELEN BEILKE wills her ability as a cook to Patsy Seidlitz.

CHARLES MAAHS wills his muscular legs to Bill Osterloth.

TOM TRINKO wills 50 pounds to Allen Voelz in hopes that he won't throw his weight around.

NATHALIE SCHMIDT wills her ability to go 17 years without being kissed to Evalena Weller.

BILL SCHULTZ wills his ability to debate any question to Nancy Giese.

SHERMAN WILLIAMS . . . . . .leaves. . . . . .

VALARIE HERMANN is leaving Allen in a savings account for a few years.

JIM BOLDIG is leaving for Wausau post haste.

ALLEN GROSSKOPF leaves his icey stare to Julia Miller.

BUD MALUEG wills his fly rod to anyone who likes to fish but don't expect to catch any fish.

JACKY LONG isn't leaving anything, she is taking Bud along.

JERRY JACOBS wills his agressiveness in sports to Elton Strassburg.

PATTI MAAS wills her "Get a Guy" policy to Marie Teuchert.

JOYCE LARSON wills her stock in Standard Oil Company to anyone who likes oil and horses.

GERALD GIESSEL wills his genius in Bookkeepirg to next years class.

SANDRA MILLER wills her band suit to the up and coming Trombonist, Carol Brady.

DONALD LARSON leaves his ability to make his butch hair cut stand on end to Mrython Heins.

ROGER STRASSBURG leaves the warning "hands off." He isn't "Sharon" with anyone.

LORAYNE HARTLEBEN wills her ability to hook Spanish caballeros to Penny Maahs.

FRED KASTEN wills his acting ability to Dennis Zeinert.

JUDY PEHLKE leaves Lee Darling but takes his heart with her.

LESTER MARTEN wills his mustache to Don Brei.

WALTER SCHWARTZKOPF wills his way with women to David Jahnke.

ONE ACT PLAY

FIRST ROW: Miss Jones, M. Maahs, T. Trinko, N. Schmidt, V. Hermann, J. Jacobs, Mr. Koch. SECOND ROW: P. Maahs, F. Kasten, J. Larson, A. Hull, J. Quinney, B. Schultz, D. Larson, W. Martin.

The 1953-54 Dramatic season saw Bowler High School take its second straight Dramatic trophy. Bowler High School has taken both of its two Dramatic trophies in the last two years. The play presented this year was "The Command Performance" by Jack Stuart Knapp. The cast received the starred "A" at the Conference Contest at Bowler on November 13. One week later they traveled to Stevens Point for the District Contest where they were awarded a "B" for their production. They were coached by Miss Jones and Rev. Koch.

"Some service."

"And you Claudia, best friend.".

"Go ahead and present Mrs. Downs to Miss Parks."

"Senor, I weel put a bullet in your brain."

"Here, let me help you up, Rollo."

Senior Class Play

A three-act comedy, "KEEP YOUR FINGERS CROSSED" was presented by the seniors on May 14, 1954. The play was under the direction of Miss Jones.
